Rights of Use and Authorship

By participating in the contest, the participant grants the IOA an irrevocable, non-exclusive, worldwide and unlimited right of use to utilize the submitted image(s) free of charge for the Association's own internal and external public relations and communication purposes.

This right of use includes, in particular, the right to publish, reproduce, display, distribute and illustrate the submitted image(s) in connection with the contest, its documentation, and the promotion and presentation of the IOA, in all media formats (print, online, social media, exhibitions, and similar), without any entitlement to remuneration.

Copyright remains with the participant.

By participating, the participant confirms that:

- they are the sole author and copyright holder of the submitted image(s);
- they hold all necessary and unrestricted rights to use and grant the above-mentioned rights;
- the submitted image(s) are free of third-party rights, in particular trademark, copyright, or personal rights;
- all recognizable persons depicted in the image(s) have given their consent to the described uses.

The participant further confirms that the submitted image(s) do not contain any images, materials or logos that are offered for sale or download on commercial platforms.

Images generated wholly or partially using artificial intelligence (AI) are permitted only if expressly disclosed at the time of submission. The participant warrants that they hold all necessary rights to such image(s) and remains solely liable for any third-party claims arising from their use. Undisclosed AI-generated image(s) may be excluded at the sole discretion of the IOA.

The participant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the IOA against any claims raised by third parties in connection with the use of the submitted image(s) as described above.
